

TRICK N TREAT

Tuesday, October 31, 2017

The Dallas Area Visitors Center and the Morrison High are pleased to host this safe and weather resistant event on Tuesday October 31st at the Morrison High School Campus on Main Street. This is a great opportunity for parents to go to one location to trick-n-treat local businesses... and a great way for businesses to connect with kids and their parents in a fun way!

Event Details:

- ★ This is a free event for parents/guardians in our community to enjoy with their kids, thanks to the support of local businesses through sponsorship and vendor fees!
- ★ The Trick-N-Treat happens from 3pm-6pm for children ages 0-12 years
- ★ We average over 650 people participating with 20+ businesses on display giving, out goodies to kids and their parents.
- ★ We will host a costume contest every half hour, starting at 3:30pm with the last contest at 6pm. We will award a boy and girl each time, judging from those in attendance

Support Opportunities:

- ★ Event Sponsorship; Major = $250 with logo & Supporting = $100 with text
- ★ Vendor/Table Fee is $25
- ★ Costume Contest Prizes range from balloons to gift certificates and everything in between, just think "youth friendly" (20 prizes given).
- ★ Volunteers are needed for cleanup at 6pm. The more the merrier and the lighter the workload for everyone!
